Koichi Kawaji Elite Internship Program

Are you the elite of your student cohort?

2022

We have designed an internship program to attract only the very best student minds.

We want the smartest, most driven students – regardless of discipline.

We will reward you handsomely.

We will give you the knowledge, the access and the support you need to make the most of your unique talents.

We don't want cardboard cutouts – we want builders, strategists, analysts & superstars.

If you want recognition, financial reward and a fast track into the top tier of the international finance industry, learn more and submit your application to our recruitment team via the email below.

How the program works:

Applications are currently closed for the Koichi Kawaji Internship Program, however we will be opening them up again soon. If you would like to submit your interest for future programs, please send your CV to internship@invast.com.au
